FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

SATURDAY, NOV. 5-6 P. M. On 'Change to-day cotton was lower in sympathy with a heavier market in Liverpool and large re-ceipts at the ports. Breadstuffs became weak this afternoon, and closed at a considerable decline, the epression in the market being due to the recent decline in gold and the accumulation of stock at this port owing to the scarcity of freight room.

THE COTTON MOVEMENT. ceipts of cotton during the past week were 100,406 bales, against 35,935 bales the previous week. The total receipts since September 1 reach 542,745 baies, against 530,746 bales last year, showing an increase this season of 11,137 bales. The exports at all the ports for the week were 73,124 bales, against 28,777 bales last year. The total experts for the expired portion of the cotton year are 229,553 bales, against 207,080 bales last year. The crop so far is just 12,000 bales lighter than last year. THE BANK STATEMENT.

The weekly statement of the associated banks is highly important, as showing a most nourishing condition of affairs on the part of those institutions. The legal reserve during the week increased $2,781,392, against an increase in liabilities of only $1,645,920, enabling the banks to add $2,369,912 to their surplus reserve-which now stands at the flatering figure of 12,112,841. In addition to this they have strengthened themselves by reducing their loans to the extent of $2,685,579—their incentive to to so being the lower rate of interest on call, which has impelled them to invest a portion of their repaying a higher rate of interest than is attamable on mand loans. The statement compares with its

MONEY EASY.

The money market was abundantly supplied at ave per cent as the prevailing rate on cast, with pledge of miscellaneous collaterals. Some of the stock houses paid six per cent, but on the other hand large balances were left with the government cealers at four per cent. ealers at four per cent. steady on the basis of 109% for prime bankers' sixty day sterling and 109% for sight bills. GOVERNMENTS FIRM.

The government list was steady in the forenoon at the figures of the late decline, but improved on the appearance of the bank statement and closed strong at an advance of an eighth to a quarter per cent. The final street prices this evening are as follows:—United States currency sixes, 111% a 111%; do., 1881, registered, 113% a 113%; do. do., coupon 113% a 118%; do. five-twenties, registered, May and Nevember. 167 % a 107 %; do. do., 1862, coupon, do., 108 % a 108 %; do. do., 1884, do. do., 107 % a 107 %; de. do., 1865, do. do., 107% a 107%; do. do., 1865, registered, January and July, 109% a 109%; do. do., 1865, coupon, de. do., 109% a 109%; do. do., 1867, do. do., 109% a 109%; 40. do., 1868, do. de., 199% a 199%; do. ten-ferties, registered, 106% a 106%; do. do., coupen, 1961/ a STOCKS STRONG AND BUOYANT.

The feeling at the Stock Exchange was strangely milish, and prices continued advancing. A further unprovement of about a half per cent was effected in most of the list of active shares. After the last oard there was some disposition to realize, as usual on Saturdays, in order to save the two days' interest to Monday, and prices reacted about a quarter per sent, but the bank statement proving so unexpect edly favorable there was a fresh upward turn, and the sellers took back their stocks at higher prices than they sold at. Except in a few instances the anal street quotations were the highest of the day.

GOLD STEADY.

The gold market was steady and dull at 110 % a 110 %. There is a fair demand for gold on legitimate account to close mercantile contracts, the present price affording a reasonable margin of profit, which act is taken advantage of to guard against the conlingency of a reaction. This demand, coupled with the gradual buying of the "shorts," is the secret of he present steadiness of the market, THE COURSE OF THE GOLD MARKET.

CENERAL OBSERVER OF THE TOOTHPICK.—CAN I human nature sustain such an injury without being highly agitated and incensed? No; for in these coming elseconstances no incautious expression has slipped from my tongue or pen. The agony of mind I must unavoidably been in at the time ought sufficiently to pleaf the cause; but it is very remarkable that during the course of the late dispute not the least reflection has appeared to mind as yet. It is to arrogate to man that perfection that cannot excite but in God alone, whom all, without any reservation, are bound to obey. "To preserve Hon. Judge Leewith's triumph as Mayor of the city of New York" it is to "hund-pull" an apple from the stem. Be cautious not to bruise it with your index fanger and your tongue, or let it fail to the ground, for fear it would prick or rot; but let me implore the honest voiers of New York city to preserve it, and let it all be combined and presented to that honorable man, who has a mind and great muscle, but the rest of the frame are subject to her. My lords and genilemen, I have the hone to remain your lordships' humble servant, JNO. REDMOND O'HARO, V. S. U. S. N. Y., 199 Mercer street.

NULLIAM HITCHINAN, Esq., President of the Fire Department of the city of New York:

SIR. We, the undersigned, citizens of Yorkville and Barlem, democrats and republicans, respectfully suggest the importance of your devoting your whole time to the proper management of the Fire Department, of which you are chief officer. importance of your devoting your whole time to the proper management of the Fire Department, of which you are chief officer.

We think it proper that you remain in this city, in case of any great emergency; besides one important office at a time is as such as one man can attend to. Therefore we ask, as an act of good clitzenship, that you will follow the noble example of Mr. W. F. Haradon, the republican, and that of Mr. Michael Halloran, the regular democratic caudidate, and retire from the contest, so that the whole vote of the Tweaty-first Assembly district may be unantimens in rayor of the people's independent caudidate, Mr. John Folsy, who has already the actual support of three-fourths of the voters of the district, who have pledged themselves to vote for him, for the reason that he has done more for local improvament than any man in the district, and we owe much to his energy in opening Madison Avenue Railroad, and because he has promised to give us a steam railroad to go from Harlem te the City Hall in 15 minutes thus relieving our greatest want.

aircas to go from Hariem to the Util Hall in in minutes has relieving our greatest want.

We are satisfied that he is the only man whom we carely upon to procure it at once.
